

Regulated Waste Acceptance Policy

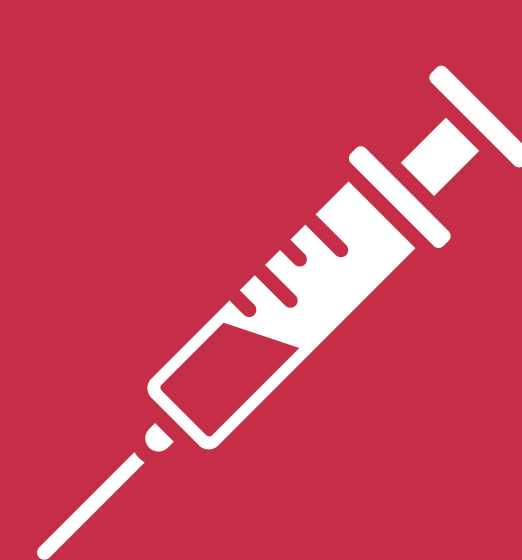

Should you have questions regarding the Regulated Waste Acceptance Policy or proper segregation and handling of containers, please contact us today and a HWM representative will be happy to help you, your employees and staff.

GOES IN VERSUS DOES NOT GO IN

A VISUAL GUIDE

Sharps Containers Go In The Regulated Medical Waste Bin

Loose Sharps Do Not Go In The Regulated Medical Waste Bin

Biohazard Waste

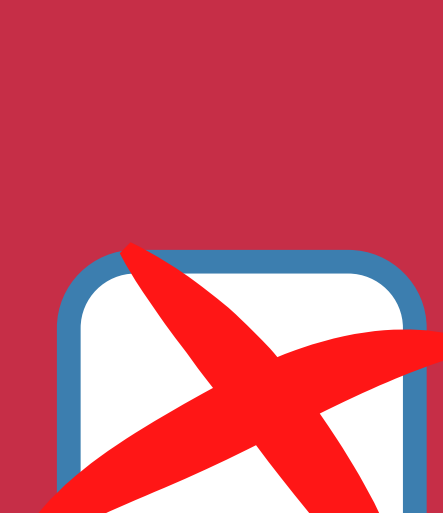

Human Remains

Biohazardous Waste

Bulk Chemo Waste

Biomedical Waste

RCRA Hazardous Waste

Infectious Waste

Chemicals

Regulated Medical Waste

Compressed Gas Cylinders

Some Regulated Medical Waste, must be identified and segregated for proper destruction. Those are,

- Trace Chemo
- Pathological Waste
- Non-RCRA Pharmaceuticals

Other waste not accepted as as Regulated Medical Waste.

- Infectious substance, Category A
- Mercury
- Hazardous or Universal Waste
- Radioactive Waste